Dear Texas Speech Communication Colleagues and Friends,

Welcome to Convention 2011!!!

Last year I asked you to join me in my garden because my roses wanted to see you -- don't know how many of you thought about Mr. Sheridan's wisdom when you read those words. Perhaps you thought "That Kandi! She has lost it yet one more time!" But, I promise I hadn't. At the time, I was intrigued and uplifted by the perspective offered by Richard Sheridan's words and was hoping I just might get you to begin the journey of looking at how perspective impacts all of our lives. I continue to be provoked by his words to think in new ways and see old things newly.

Even if I wasn't able to hook you even a little last year, I know this year's Convention is going to hook you in new ways. I want each of us to challenge philosopher Arthur Schopenhauer's claim that "Every man takes the limits of his own field of vision for the limits of the world." I am convinced your world will have new and expanded limits when you return home on Sunday. Convention 2011, as developed by our amazing TSCA Vice-President, Connie McKee, and our amazing Interest Group Chairs/Committees, will push us all to look beyond our own fields of vision, our own perspectives, and, upon reaching the conclusion of the Convention, take home with us at least one new vista or two.

Thank you - all of you - for being sure to join each year and become a part of one of the largest state speech organizations in the US. Taking the time and making the financial commitment to participate in a professional organization says much about who you are and your belief in what we teach. Welcome to our new members!!

Thank you to all committee chairs, committee members, interest group chairs and interest group members for your willingness and commitment to serve TSCA not just at Convention but throughout the year. Without your leadership and in-the-trench work, the officers' jobs would be so much more difficult.

Thank you to our Local Arrangements Committee whose work always makes our convention so much the better - Ronda Craig, Sami Womack, Aimee Kasprzyk, Melissa Witt, Myrna Bass, and Ralph Long - you are invaluable and gracious and wonderful!

Thank you our incredible Governmental Affairs Chair, Lacye Matejowsky, Russell Kirkscey, Jana Riggins, Natalie Bryant, Virginia Myers Dorman, Dr. Richard Cheatham, Shawn Mena, Heath Martin, Racy Grant, Melissa Witt, Travis Cormier, Shawn Wahl and Mekia Forge and each of the members of the GA committee for all you did in both word and action as you represented TSCA and speech education during the State Board of Education hearing - you all are my heroes!

Thank you to my fellow officers, Ralph, Connie, Russell, Mike, Brent, Amy, Aimee, Jana and Shaun - you have been so much more than colleagues and your professionalism and friendship make you my heroes as well. Words just aren't enough to express my gratitude and love for my immediate TSCA family!

Thank you to six very special folk. . . my mentors, my kitchen cabinet sometimes, whose strength of character and wisdom embody the very essence of heroism - Ralph Long, Natalie Bryant, Jana Riggins, Barbara McCain, Ann Shofner and Charlotte English Joyner. All of you ought to know what you did. . . if you don't, well, that makes you all the more special!!

Finally, I thank my own family for always supporting and loving me, but I especially thank my Poppa whose life lessons led to only the beginning of my journey into the myriad worlds of perspective and, through his leadership of others, has always been my role model.

Join us at our receptions, our luncheon, our sessions, our general meetings and offer your perspectives! Take a moment or two over the next three days, gather a rose or two, and, above all else, continue to defy gravity! Because I knew you, I have indeed been changed for good!

Kandi King, TSCA President 2010-11

Call for Manuscripts

Texas Speech Communication Journal
Volume 37
Special Issue on Performance Studies

The Texas Speech Communication Journal announces a "special issue" inviting manuscripts that focus on Performance Studies scholarship. This special issue of TSCJ is open to a variety of performance studies scholarship including: philosophical inquiry regarding performance, performance histories, original performance scripts, performance criticism, autoethnographic essays, performance poetry, performance ethnography, and performance pedagogy. Both traditional and experimental texts will be considered.

Manuscripts should be received no later than March 10, 2012. TSCJ follows a policy of blind review so no author identification should appear in the body of the manuscript.

Manuscripts should not exceed 25 pages and be written according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (5th edition). The title page should include the author's name, academic position, institutional affiliation, full mailing address, telephone number, email address, brief author bio, and a history of the manuscript (presentation at conferences, thesis or dissertation work, etc.). An abstract of not more than 150 words should accompany the manuscript. The author should also include keywords for the article. Email submissions are required for manuscripts, and should appear in Mac or MS "Word" format.

Queries and manuscript submissions should be sent via email to:

A1 Characterizations in Oral Interpretation

SALON C

(recommended for new teachers)

Sponsor: Oral Interpretation and Performance Studies

Chair : Doris Velez

Coordinator: Yolanda Silva

Presenters: Doris Valez

M'Liss Hindman

Myrna Bass

This panel will give tried and true keys to help students understand the importance of knowing everything about the character before giving a performance.

---

A2 High Stakes Persuasion: Teaching Persuasion Through the Perspective of the Felony Trial Attorney

SALON A

Sponsor: TFA

Chair/Coordinator: Hailey Drescher

Presenter: Blake Glover, Collin County District Office

The panel uses the perspective of the trial attorney as a lens to teach ethos, pathos, and logos to high school students. A blend of "Law And Order " "CSI" and your local county prosecutors Office allows students to draw connections between the classroom and life applications with very real consequences

Join us for the opportunity to spend an evening listening to the poetry of a true Texas gentleman! Doyle "Doc" Wood takes the audience on a remarkable journey into the world of poetry. You will experience every possible emotion as the visual images, created in the mind of the author, come alive in your mind. Doyle Wood was raised in the Piney Woods of East Texas. A graduate of the University of Oklahoma with an MA in Communication, he is now in his third profession: writer. After retiring as an Army Officer, he taught theatre and speech at both the high school and university levels. Even though he now writes as much as possible, Doyle spends most of his weekends performing throughout North/Northwest Texas. Doyle's poetry spans free verse, blank verse, sonnets, cinquains and other structured poetic forms. His poetry has been published in the Poetry Society of Texas Book of the Year, the PST Bulletin, CowboyPoetry.com, and the NFSPS anthology Encore.
